2014 New York State Fair Junior Champion

Our Milking Shorthorn heifer, Ourway IR Alsha Amber 12th-EXP, repeated her exciting win from 2013 by being named Junior Champion once again at the 2014 New York State Fair. We purchased Amber at the 2013 National Milking Shorthorn Convention when she was six months old, and she has given us more than our share of exciting wins and experiences. She is now Madison bound and she will be competing at the 2014 World Dairy Expo. She placed 4th out of a very deep class of 22 last year in Madison, and then she went on to be nominated All-American in 2013. She is now bred and checked safe with a March calf.

We would like to thank Allan and Jo Merrill, Merrillea Holsteins, for the superb care and conditioning that they have given Amber since late last summer when she went to live with them. Thanks are also in order to Shaun Merrill and the crew at Black Fire Cattle Care for their expert care and leading her to the win at many of these shows. My nephew and his wife, Todd Jr. and Missy Winton, my niece, Emily Winton and brother Scott Winton gave Amber her start at the Chautauqua County Fair as a baby calf. Little did any of us know where this would lead!

Thanks to all of the support that she has received from across New York, especially from the Holstein community.
